Lyttelton Draft Master Plan

Five Days to Have Your Say

Various meetings held since February 22nd have focused on the recovery and development of Lyttelton. As a result of these meetings, the document entitled “Suburban Centres Programme - Lyttelton Draft Master Plan” has in the last week been made available for comment by the Christchurch City Council.

Lyttelton residents have until 5pm Friday 12 August [that’s this Friday] to make any comments on the draft master plan. After this deadline, the collective design team will presume that residents are in complete agreement with the draft master plan, and it will be presented to Council for consideration.

Please note Council is not bound to proceed with any prospective idea detailed in the presentation summary. Decisions as to whether or not an action will be taken forward into the Draft Master Plan remains with the Council.

Hard copies of the Draft Master Plan, and feedback forms are available to be viewed from:

Lyttelton “Top” Club, 23 Dublin Street

Lyttelton Library, 35 London Street

Be Yourself

Why would you want to be someone else
When you could be better by being yourself Why pretend to be someone you are not
When you have some thing they haven't got

Cheating yourself of the life you have to live Deprives others of that only which you can give You have much more to offer by being just you Than walking around in someone else's shoes

Trying to live the life of another is a mistake
It is a masquerade;
nothing more, a fake Be yourself and let your qualities show through Others will love you more for being just you

Family and friends will love you more too
If you spent time practicing being you

One Very Special Visit

Governor-General in Lyttelton

It's not every day that the Governor-General Sir Anand Satyanand, and his wife, Lady Satyanand visit Lyttelton, and on Friday 5th August, it was the perfect day for a visit.

At the Lyttelton Main School around 250 pupils from both Lyttelton West and Lyttelton Main welcomed them with a powhiri. Governor General Satyanand addressed the school saying "We have come to offer our support to those grievously affected by the earthquake. It is important for all of you to realise that New Zealanders everywhere feel for you and want to acknowledge the efforts being made by your parents to make sure this area will thrive and be as wonderful a place as it was 150 years ago. It's a historic part of our country".

From the Lyttelton Main school, the group walked down London Street and were treated to an impromptu rehearsal of the last act of Macbeth. The Loons production company making the most of the now vacant sections where Volcano Cafe, Lyttelton Fisheries and Coastal Living once proudly stood. As the Governor General Satyanand watched from the footpath he exclaimed with a warming smile "I think that was a wonderful symbol of the community's optimism. This is a place that has had some terrible damage, but in a way, the people of Lyttelton are getting on with recovery".

Onto the Lyttelton St John Ambulance Station, and the Governor General was introduced to members of the Lyttelton Mt Herbert Community Board; the St Johns Operations team; the Lyttelton Volunteer Fire Brigade and members from Lyttelton Civil Defence.

Here at the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre, we were delighted to have been included on the list of introductions. Having watched the Governor General walk down London Street, our small gathering of volunteers and representatives from the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre, Project Lyttelton and the Historic Places Trust were all smiles at the arrival of the Governor General. During introductions to members of Project Lyttelton the Governor General and Lady Satyanand were presented with fine examples of Lyttelton Hearts - the ones that were so uplifting to see following Februarys devastation; and a touching gesture received well by their excellencies.

While meeting the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre volunteers, the Governor General emphasised the importance of both volunteers in the community, and having a reference point for the community to source information, especially in times like these. Despite the images of destruction and loss, Governor General Satyanand told the group that he was impressed at the sense of forward motion, signs of optimism and the kiwi can-do attitude demonstrated by the number of businesses and organisations who were establishing themselves in port-a-coms - identifying with our new normal.

Viewing images presented by the Historic Places Trust on the deconstruction of the Lyttelton Time Ball Station, both the Governor General and Lady Satyanand admired the amount of work being undertaken to save the building, and expressed compassion for the loss of an historic icon. Upon being presented with a booklet on the history of the Time Ball Station, it was expressed the booklet would find a special place in the library at the Governor Generals residence.

Friday's visit represented the last visit to Canterbury before the term of Governor General ends for Sir Anand Satyanand later this month. Despite shuffling schedules, we were all delighted to have had the opportunity to meet their excellencies, and we parted with a sense of pride that he took the time to see our corner of paradise.

- ¼ cup malt syrup

- 1 tsp lemon zest
- ½ cup raisins

Lyttelton Seed Swap

Drop or Swap Seeds - One Week Deal

Under the quote “Let’s Grow Lyttelton Beautiful and Bountiful” the lovely Elizabeth from the Lyttelton Library has had this great idea of sharing or swapping seeds. Any seeds!

A simple yet effect premise, here is the plan:

If you have any spare seeds, drop them off;
If you want seeds, come and collect them;
If you want to drop off seeds, and collect seeds too
- then that’s the whole Seed Swap idea!

A box has been set up in the foyer of the Lyttelton Library for people to drop, swap or take seeds. Ideally vegetable, fruit and flower seeds are good, but if you have bulbs or other ideas you would like to add, feel free to do so. As the quote says: Let’s Grow Lyttelton Beautiful and Bountiful !

Seed swap is active from Monday 22nd August to Monday 29th August.

Sea Sunday Service

Holy Trinity Church

The Vicar, Vestry and Parishioners warmly invite you to attend the Sunday Sea Service on Sunday 14th August.

A sumptuous morning tea will follow the service and it is hoped we can do some catching up with one another.

If you have flags, please bring them to Trinity Hall. Sea Sunday is a day set aside in the Church calendar to remember seafarers; to pray for them; and their families. It is a thanks giving day for all that seafarers do in transporting the world’s goods.

Sea Sunday began in 1975 when the three main maritime missionary societies decided there should be a day in which the contributions of seafarers to the country were recognised. Sea Sunday has gone on to become an international day with services, parades and ship blessings.

Event: Sea Sunday Service

Where: Trinity Hall, Lyttelton Recreation Centre, 25 Winchester Street, Lyttelton

When: Sunday 14th August, 10.00am

If possible, please contact Pat Owen 03 328 8182 by Thursday 11th August with numbers, as this will help with organising the sumptuous morning tea.

House Cleaning Blues

I have the house cleaning blues
I look around and see so much to do I look at the walls, the windows, and the floors
I see heaps of dust layered like boards

What I need is a good house cleaning crew
But where to get one,
I haven't a clue
I asked for volunteers,
but none would relent Their community spirit, it seems, had been spent

I could wish for an occasional hurricane For me, that may not be such a bad thing I could raise the windows and open the doors
And be done with these house cleaning chores

But hurricanes don't occur where I live
So its left up to me to clean this crib
I have devised a plan to get the job done
Since I can no longer depend on anyone

My plan is as simple as it can be
One that is not very taxing on me
My walking shoes I will lace up tight
And from this nightmare
I will take flight

Here at the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre we want to beautify the front of our Port-a-Com with a temporary and transportable garden. Does anyone have 2-3 20gallon steel drums [without the lids] that we would use as planters? - says Wendy and Lynnette

I'm confused by insurance and EQC systems, and need help in understanding them so I can proceed. Relatively minor matters, not desperately urgent - some time within the next month would be just fine. - says Juliet
