The Loons

If Walls Could Talk!

Next year the Loons building will be celebrating its grand 100th anniversary.

Built in 1912 the building sits on the foundations of an even earlier building still unknown.

Its location is in the first block settled in Lyttelton, Canterbury - in Canterbury Street.

If the walls could talk the stories would go on forever. It has been a grocers, a tailors, a bakers, a mechanics garage, a theatre, a union social club, a working mans club, and a rifle club.

The Loons was at the heart of Lyttelton during the 1951 lockout from the wharfs and industrial action and welfare of the town was organised out of there. The building was gifted to the Working Mans Club by the Union to safeguard it from the clutches of the Government who were seizing the unions assets.

When it came time for a party "The Loons" was the village hall and 64 years on, it still is!

During the days of 6 o'clock closing and no trading on Sundays, behind closed doors the Loons was a sly drinking haunt and the committee had to keep control of a building packed full of men angry at their lot. Lyttelton was a rough tough place and you were known by where you drank, and what side of the fence you were on. The Loons is a huge part of the historic fabric of this town. The name came about in the 1930s' when it was 'Loons Garage'.

Generations of Lytteltonians can be traced through the photos of successive committees. The club has run continuously since 1947, with men returning from war wanting to leave their military days behind and return to being "WORKING MEN".

Coming soon: we catch up with progress to the Loons building repairs.

Lyttelton Review is a community newsletter initiative designed to keep harbour residents informed with what is going on. Learn about community groups; businesses; events; and everything in between. We are not affiliated with any particular group or organisation - just a group of vibrant like minded unpaid volunteers striving to give an independent, and uncensored voice. Here at the Lyttelton Review, we love news, ideas and information. If you have an event, topic, cause, or other, that you would like to share with the harbour community, then we would love to hear from you. Be heard, be seen, be informed - read it or offer it here:

Lyttelton Tunnel Update

Spread the Word the Tunnel is Safe

In response to the concerns raised by many residents, the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre and the Lyttelton Residents Association have written to the New Zealand Transport Agency for clarification on the safety, and excessive dust issues, for the Lyttelton Road Tunnel.

Response Addressing Safety Concerns:

Over the last few months while the strong earthquakes and aftershocks have been centred on Lyttelton, NZTA has been focused on keeping the tunnel safe and ensuring that it is in good operational condition for users. NZTA appreciate the tunnel's role as a key artery in the city and is happy to reassure road users that the tunnel is structurally sound and safe to use.

Following the 22nd February earthquake the tunnel was closed for 3 days while a structural inspection was undertaken. A few additional cracks had appeared in the tunnel walls however none of these were assessed to be of concern. Above the tunnel road-space area there is a concrete roof slab and wall separating the ventilation shafts and these were also inspected and no damage was found. The explanation for the lack of damage is because the tunnel is essentially a hole carved through a very tough volcanic rock which has a thick reinforced concrete lining. When the shaking from the earthquakes occurs the whole tunnel moves as one with the hillside, therefore because the individual components within the tunnel are not moving at a different rate the whole mass moves together and the potential for structural damage is minimal. Fissures in the rock have opened slightly and created new pathways for water ingress into the tunnel and three of the water hydrants within the tunnel walls are now also leaking which explains the additional water seepage but this in no way affects its structural integrity.

The tunnel was further inspected after the 13th June after shocks and again with the same result. Contractors have worked in conjunction with NZTA to also ensure that the damaged tunnel control building and canopy (which was demolished within 2 days of the Feb quake due to its unsafe condition) were properly addressed. Control systems for the tunnel have now been fully reinstated and in addition rock-fall protection measures have been implemented around the Heathcote tunnel portal to protect both tunnel staff and road users. NZTA remains committed to the tunnel, particularly with the closure of Evans Pass which has placed even more pressure upon the tunnel. Despite these current constraints NZTA will continue to manage the tunnel to provide a high standard of safety and a quality link between Lyttelton and the city.

Response Addressing Excessive Dust

NZTA is aware of the problem as a result of the earthquake. The increase in dust within the tunnel is not only linked to the cartage of demolition material but to the cartage of aggregate and other materials being transported to Lyttelton.

In the short term we have increased the roadway cleaning frequency to every second night to minimise the debris on the roadway. We are also working with the Port Company to install "truck showers" to suppress the dust on the trucks at both Heathcote and Lyttelton prior to entering the Tunnel. These are currently being fabricated for installation as soon as possible. At Heathcote these will be installed in the escort bay now that rock protection work has been completed to allow removal of the shipping containers. They will be installed on Port land at Lyttelton.

Wood Carving Night Classes

Whakaraupo Carving Centre

Come along and learn traditional Māori wood carving at Whakaraupo Carving Centre. Participants will learn how to carve a koruru/ traditional mask using totara and learn how to decorate them with a range of patterns. Each carver will learn how to use a range of tools and learn about the qualities of various types of native timbers.

Along the way participants will learn about the history of whakairo rākau-wood carving, and learn some of the stories behind the patterns used and the pieces that are made. In keeping with Māori tradition this course is only available to men.

Cruise Ship Season

Press Release: 8 September 2011

Lyttelton Port of Christchurch wishes to confirm recent media reports on the status of the 2011 -2012 cruise season in Lyttelton. As a result of the extensive earthquake damage sustained to the ports infrastructure, the majority of all cruise ships will omit Lyttelton for the coming season. Cruise vessels will in the vast majority of instances divert to Akaroa. LPC will still cater to small cruise vessels that can berth in the ports Inner Harbour. Lyttelton Port remains committed to the cruise industry and the port will continue to advance its plans for a new purpose built cruise berth over the next 12 months, we are committed to running a normal operation for all bookings in the 2012 – 2013 season.

ARE YOU READY FOR THE UPCOMING REFERENDUM?

November General Elections

Important Meeting Scheduled

General Elections will be held on Saturday 26th November. And this year there is a referendum taking place at the same time. The Referendum gives you the chance to have your say on the voting system we use to elect our Parliaments in the future.

In the Referendum, you will be asked two questions:

- The first question asks whether you want to keep MMP (which is the voting system we use at the moment) or whether you want to change to another voting system.
- The second question asks which of four other voting systems you would choose if New Zealand decides to change from the Mixed Member Proportional (MMP) system:
 - First Past the Post (FPP)
 - Preferential Vote (PV)
 - Single Transferable Vote (STV)
 - Supplementary Member (SM)

In conjunction with the electoral office, the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre has organised an information evening that will be facilitated by Pamela Dawson of the Electoral Commission:

Date: Wednesday 14th September
Time: 7.00pm
Where: Lyttelton Club - The Top Club
23 Dublin Street, Lyttelton

To understand these different voting systems, visit the Elections web site:

Have You Ever Seen

Have you ever seen a sheet on a river bed?

Or a single hair from a hammer's head?

Has the foot of a mountain any toes?

And is there a pair of garden hose?

Does the needle ever wink its eye?

Why doesn't the wing of a building fly?

Can you tickle the ribs of a parasol?

Or open the trunk of a tree at all?

Are the teeth of a rake ever going to bite?

Have the hands of a clock any left or right?

Can the garden plot be deep and dark?

And what is the sound of the birch's bark?

Lyttelton Mt Herbert Community Board

Next Meeting 29th September

Lyttelton Mt Herbert Community Board now meets twice a month. Their main meeting is still on the third Tuesday afternoon of the month, when most of the business is done. They also have a short meeting in the first week of each month, mainly to confirm the meeting minutes so when the report goes to the Council it is up to date and reflects the community's current concerns.

Anyone can talk to the Community Board about any matter of community interest for up to ten minutes at the beginning of either meeting. Phone Liz Carter on 03 941 5682 or email liz.carter@ccc.govt.nz to make an appointment.

Community Board Monthly Clinics

Meet the Board Members, Tell Them What You Think

The Lyttelton Mt Herbert Community Board are hoping to maintain better communication with the people they represent by holding monthly clinics where residents can meet the Board and talk informally about any matter of community interest.

At this stage, the Community Board plan to be at the big table in the Lyttelton Library from 5pm on the second Thursday of each month, but welcome any feedback from residents if another time or place would work better. If this concept works well, the Community Board may look at increasing the frequency, and perhaps hold clinics in other communities around the harbour.

Don't hold back, have your say and meet the Community Board at the Lyttelton Library on 8th September.

Lyttelton Harbour Network

Next Meeting 29th September

If you are a key member of a Lyttelton Harbour community group, then you are warmly invited to attend the next Lyttelton Harbour Network meeting:

Where: Lyttelton Recreation Centre - Meeting Room
25 Winchester Street

When: Thursday 29th September, 1.30pm

These Lyttelton Harbour Network meetings are a great opportunity to share what your group is up to - new initiatives, and updates. A light afternoon tea is provided. If you have a topic you wish to speak on, discuss, or know more about, please contact:

Neighbourhood Week

29 October to 6 November 2011

Neighbourhood Week is a week dedicated to getting to know the people who live close to you. It's about bringing people together – whether it's a small get together of a few households or a larger neighbourhood gathering. The week is an ideal opportunity to introduce yourself to your neighbours. Getting to know your neighbours can make the difference between merely occupying an address and living in a neighbourhood of friends. Applications close this Friday!

Read more about organising your own Neighbourhood Week:

Metro Bus 35

New Route Investigated

News received from the Lyttelton Residents Association, suggest the Route 35 service will not be returning in exactly the same form as it was prior to the February quake. However Metro are looking into resuming an hourly service between Lyttelton and Eastgate Mall, which will cover the entire section of the 35 route, albeit having to link in with pre-existing Metro routes. A start date for this service hasn't yet been confirmed; but we will keep you updated, if and when it is finalised.

What is Time Banking?

Time Banking is a way of trading skills in a community. It uses time, rather than money, as the measurement tool. Members of a Time Bank share their skills with other members within the community and are given time credits for the work they do. With the credits they gain, each member can 'buy' someone else's time, and get the service they need.

Why Join Lyttelton Time Bank?

Time Banking adds a richness to Time Bankers' lives. As a concept it brings 'wealth', in the form of friendship, caring for one another, having our needs met from within our own community and getting help with things we can't do. Skills that are often taken for granted are valued - especially non-market economy skills - like mothering, basic home help and caring, friendliness, listening.

In Lyttelton as a result of the Time Bank we can see a tighter community forming. Friendships are forming between people of different backgrounds who would not usually have met. The elderly are being cared for and the skills they share are valued. Special needs people are encouraged to participate. Time Banking builds relationships and trust in a community. Everyone has something they can contribute to the wellbeing of the whole.

Everyone's Time is Equal

With Time Banking everybody's time is equal, no matter what type of work is done. 1 = 1. If you give one hour's work, you receive one hour time credit. If you have another member do one hour's work, they are paid one hour time credit. Every person is equally valued.

Here are a few examples of what Lyttelton Harbour residents are giving and receiving this week:

Hi ya, I have a couple of cracked window in aluminium joinery and was hoping there was someone out there who can help me get it fixed please. ? - says Megan

We are thinking of turning our green waste patch into a pumpkin patch and are looking for a large sheet of black PVC to cover the ground. If you have some, or know where we can source it cheaply, please get in touch. I'm sure we'll have an excess of pumpkins to share to show our gratitude! ? - says Rushani

I have ten or so big kale plants that need eating. It makes a great addition to mashed spuds and I will be putting some in the freezer to add to baby food as well. If you fancy some local fresh vegetables - give me a call. - says Jozefa

Free to anyone who wants a single chair with wooden arms. Fabric cover is neutral woollen fabric. Comfortable. - says Project Lyttelton

Can You Help? Or How Can We Help You?

If you can help with any of these requests, or would like to include a request of your own, please contact the Time Bank team.
