Lyttelton Harbour Review is a 100% voluntary community newsletter initiative developed after the February 2011 earthquake. It's a Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre initiative produced by Chairperson Wendy Everingham and Committee Member Jenny-Lee Love.

The objective of the Lyttelton Harbour Review is to help keep local residents informed with what is going on in the wider Lyttelton Harbour community. Of course the success of the Lyttelton Harbour Review could not be possible without the ongoing support and enthusiasm from the wider community.

A big thank you goes out to everyone who sends information; is willing to be interviewed or lets us know what might be happening in the neighbourhood. The Lyttelton Harbour Review project would not be possible without you all.

If you have an event, topic, sport announcement, fundraiser or cause that you would like to share with the harbour community, then Wendy or Jenny-Lee would love to hear from you:

Be Heard – It's Annual Plan Time

Councillor Turner's Thoughts

It's that time in the council cycle when the Annual Plan and amendments to the Long Term Plan are discussed with the community. Council continues to be more innovative as it seeks to hear your views. This year not only can you make written submissions, attend face to face meetings and use social media there is also one last chance to be heard at the council offices on May 14th. You can come along and present to the councillors face to face in a special afternoon forum at the council chamber. No need to book just turn up and speak your thoughts briefly directly to the decision makers that matter.

Speaking with Councillor Turner the issues that he expects will be of most importance to Lyttelton Harbour residents are the Head to Head Walkway, the Naval Point Development and possibly asset sales.

"This year when you are looking at the figures and you are wondering why budgets are smaller for some items this is about having realistic expectations. In the past capital amounts would be included in the plan when realistically the council did not have the capacity to deliver some of these projects within the time frame. We have tried to rectify that," he said. He also added the proviso that if situations changed and was capacity to deliver capital projects earlier than expected, then budget could be brought forward to match.

An example of this is the Head to Head Walkway. A budget of over $300,000 has been agreed in the Long Term Plan but the council team have indicated they are unable to complete all the work next year due to much of the work having to be investigated before work on the ground can begin. Figures have been amended to reflect this with some expenditure deferred to the following year.

"The benefit of this approach is that we are being more flexible, reliable and realistic" he said.

Similarly, the development at Naval Point has also had the budgeted amounts amended in the Annual Plan to reflect what council believes can be delivered.

"Progress here is dependent upon the quantitative risk assessment of the tank area that is still being conducted and until that is finalised some of detail of the work on the Naval Point upgrade remains uncertain" he said.

This year in the annual plan the financial position of the council is also better understood. "We do not need to release as much capital from asset sales as we had previously thought. A sale of assets may no longer be necessary as other options for releasing capital could be explored" he said. City Care however is an exception to this thinking. This was approved for sale in the Long Term Plan plan process last year and is currently subject to a sale process which is under way. It is not yet known what the result of this will be. The final outcome will be known in June.

In Councillors Turner's opinion there really aren't a huge amount of things in the Annual Plan that impact specifically on Lyttelton. "Our community has already done extremely well from the facilities rebuild programme with nearly all of our important community assets rebuilt or repaired, including the pool, the recreation centre, Albion Square, and the remaining facilities such as 25 Canterbury Street, which are being completed now."

That said the council is really keen to hear what you have to say.

Old Fashioned Values Still Shine

Respect – Gratitude – Love

The numbers of former service men and women marching gets smaller and smaller but Lyttelton community comes to honour and respect those that have served and those that paid the ultimate sacrifice to ensure that we inherited the freedoms that we have today.

According to Rev Neil Struthers community members expressing their gratitude grows stronger each year. He highlighted that when he came to Lyttelton thirteen years ago the crowds at the Anzac Service were quite small. Now several hundred people come to show their appreciation. Many attend the Remembrance Service while others do lovely deeds largely unseen as their sign of respect. I am reminded of the woman who was quietly tending the war graves as I made my way down to the service. The Timebanker's who ensure all the war graves are kept clean and tidy throughout the year. The service organisations – Fire Brigade, St John's, Sea Scouts and others who pitch in to help with catering, the parade and any other tasks that need.

"Lyttelton is not forgetting, it's remembering, respecting and loving" said Rev Struthers.

Lyttelton's close association with Rapaki is another special part of the ceremony as we remember their great contributions to our country. This year MP Nuk Korako reflected on that. Quite by surprise in a very symbolic gesture we got a glimpse of our bi-cultural nation in action when he asked veteran Army serviceman Brian Downey to recite "The Ode to the Fallen" in Te Reo on behalf of Tangata Whenua.

Brian served in Malaya during the 60's and worked predominantly with Maori service personal. He speaks multiple languages. The Ode is quite pertinent to him as he laments that all his Maori comrades have died early, a sad reflection on the poor life expectancy statistics between Maori and Pakeha.

Quite a large part of the day's ceremony is administered by the Lyttelton RSA Charitable Trust. Bryan Shankland a veteran Navy Serviceman is the Master of Ceremonies for this event. "I've participated in ANZAC ceremonies since I was 7 years old." he proudly tells me. In the early days he accompanied his grandfather and they would travel from St Albans to the Dawn Ceremony each year. He's been doing that ever since.

Brian Downey

That means today on Anzac Day, Bryan has already been to the dawn service in Christchurch and now he's at Lyttelton. He is also a former serviceman from the Malaya period in the 60's. Rather than leaving the Navy fully after active service he remained in the Naval Reserves for many years. "That meant I had the honour of speaking at Anzac Services all around the place" he said. Since his retirement from the Reserves in 2006 he's now playing a key role in the local Lyttelton RSA and that enables him to be Lyttelton's Master of Ceremonies. He enjoys the organisation and the business of it all. "Lyttelton is such a very special place and I particularly like the very long and close association the RSA have with St John's, the Fire Brigade and the community in general", he said.

As the seagulls swooped down onto the memorial it felt like the spirits of the fallen were close by. Maybe they were gently smiling as they witnessed the love and respect of the community at large on Anzac Day 2016.

Lyttelton Arts Factory

All you Need to Know

The Loons Theatre Trust is celebrating the opening of its new theatre to the public on the 17th of June 2016 with one of their famous cabaret performances, running over two nights. An open day will also be held during the Lyttelton Saturday markets between 10:30 and 12:30 Saturday 18th June when the public are welcome to explore the new theatre space corner of Sumner Road and Oxford Street in Lyttelton.

The Loons Theatre Trust lost their theatre in the Christchurch earthquakes. The opportunity to create a new theatre came through partnering with the Ministry of Education and Lyttelton Primary to build a dual facility school hall and theatre on the new Lyttelton school campus.

The Ministry of Education has funded the building. The Loons Theatre Trust has raised the money to fit the space out as a performing arts centre with retractable seating, staging, lighting, and sound rigs. The Loons Theatre Trust was able to attract the support of funders and donors because of their proven track record in delivering highly acclaimed theatre shows, education programmes and community events.

The new theatre space has been greeted as an exceptional resource for school children, the community, and the performing arts with letters of enthusiastic support from Christchurch Arts Festival, World Buskers Festival, CPIT, Lyttelton Primary, MP Ruth Dyson, Air Rescue Trust, Sculpture on the Peninsula, and the Lyttelton/Mt Herbert Community Board. The Loons Theatre Trust is particularly delighted to have received great support from the Ministry of Education in finding a solution, which will benefit both the school and its community.

Retractable seating is the key to utilising one building for two functions, School hall by day, theatre by night, 127 seats retract to just 1.8 metres freeing up the space for other activities. The flexibility of the seating also allows a wide range of set ups for performance, education, community and other uses.

The theatre will be a state of the art theatre with high spec lighting, sound and rigging, and will also be available for hire, which will provide a much needed performance venue for touring arts companies, international acts, live music, community events, and school theatre.

The building will be named The Lyttelton Arts Factory, or LAF for short. Creative Director Mike Friend explains: "A factory makes stuff. We want to make performance. We want to integrate the arts. LAF is a space where theatre, dance, music and circus can all happen. A factory where artists can come together to devise and create new work." Branding for LAF is being developed by creative agency TimeZoneOne.

As an internationally recognised Director, Mike has forged close partnerships with theatre companies and venues in the UK and Europe. These relationships open opportunities for Christchurch performers and will bring international productions to Christchurch audiences. Of note is the partnership with East Riding Theatre (home of the City of Culture 2017) which will see four English actors joining Kiwi actors for the LAF Christmas season.

Lyttelton Primary will use the building as a school hall between 8:00 am and 3:15 pm Monday to Friday. From 3:15pm Monday to Friday, weekends and school holidays the new performance space will be home to The Loons Theatre Trust, which means the live theatre spectaculars, education programmes and community events the Loons Theatre Trust are famous for will return to Christchurch.

Diana Feary, principal of Lyttelton Primary, explains: "Mike Friend and the Loons bring a special dimension to both Lyttelton and our school with the role they play in making drama live for our children. We value our partnership and look forward to its continued growth." Paula Smith of the Lyttelton community board sees the new theatre as: "A much needed boost to our town's recovery".

Lyttelton Primary start using the new school building at the start of Term 2. The Loons Theatre Trust will spend most of May and early June putting the finishing touches on the theatre fit out. Tickets for the opening cabaret will be on sale from Monday 16th May.

DETAILS

FUNDING

The retractable seating that the 2016 BOOSTED Arts Foundation crowd funding campaign, raised the funds for arrived on the 18th of April. 341 donors gave $95,287.33 in just 46 days. Trust and grant funding will pay for a component of the retractable seating, the lighting, sound, and other fit out requirements.

Trusts & Grants

- Rātā Foundation - $150,000.00 (fit out)
- Christchurch Earthquake Appeals Trust

$62,728.00 (fit out)

- CNZ Earthquake Recovery Grant- $50,000 (retractable seating)
- Christchurch City Council, Mayoral Fund $50,000.00 (fit out)
- Todd Foundation – $40,000.00 (fit out)
- Lion Foundation - $8,000 (fit out)
- Christchurch City Council, Strengthening Communities - $26,359.00 (Operational)
- Christchurch City Council, Creative Industries Support Fund - $42,600.00 (Operational)

EDUCATION

The Loons in Schools performing arts education programmes continue to be run by Mike Friend (Loons Theatre Trust's Creative Director, founder) despite losing the Loons venue in 2011. The opening of the new theatre means that Mike can expand his programme and move out of the temporary post earthquake premises into the theatre, opening up huge opportunities for students.

LAF's education programme runs outside school hours after 3:15pm. Mondays are dedicated to dance, Tuesdays to music and Wednesdays to drama, with age specific classes running from 3:30pm – 10pm.

Mike will continue to run his drama classes on Wednesdays. These courses stretch the students physically, emotionally, intellectually, and creatively preparing them to meet the highest demands of the profession. The courses are adapted to each age range and ability level and develop a high level of performance individuality and imagination.

The Loons Circus Theatre Company is internationally recognized for the development of new New Zealand works such as The Butler and Hanussen. In this tradition Mike is recruiting 10 performers to create a show in November. Contact Darryl@theloons.co.nz to audition.

Currently the Hip Hop Dance programme is run by Zion Dance Studio's Lani.

The Music programme is run by Carmel Courtney and offers a wide range of opportunities from songwriting to orchestra.

The full programme is available at www.theloonstheatretrust.com/about/education.

For info and registrations contact Darryl@theloons.co.nz

PERFORMANCE

Lyttelton Arts Factory (LAF) is a fully equipped professional theatre complete with an industry standard booking system.

The Loons Theatre Trust manages the dual facility venue from 3:15 pm Monday – Friday during school terms, weekends and school holidays. This opens up the potential for four performance seasons. The professional performance schedule calendar is already planned through to February 2017 including some with international casts.

The education programmes will also get the opportunity to run seasons to showcase their students and the community programme of events will be designed to complement the theatre seasons.

Bookings will be continually firmed up throughout the year. Go to www.theloonstheatretrust.com for shows and bookings.

COMMUNITY

The Loons Theatre Trust is well known for supporting the community, and their hilarious fundraising quiz nights have raised money for Cholmondeley Children's Centre, Sculpture on the Peninsula, Lyttelton Plunket, Lyttelton Primary, Glenelg Children's Health Camp, Air Rescue Trust, Lyttelton Sea Scouts, Lyttelton Karate Club, and Lyttelton Toy Library.

The Loons Theatre Trust looks forward to having a venue again to support the community. To book your community function contact Darryl@theloons.co.nz

Cakes For Greatness

32 Ruth Targus

Introducing Ruth Targus from Lyttelton. Ruth was nominated for her commitment and dedication to our community, which she has maintained despite challenges and delays in returning back to her house. Project Lyttelton (PL) is a non-profit grassroots organisation committed to building a sustainable and connected community. This is done by way of a variety of projects and events, some that we are familiar with are the TimeBank and Lyttelton Farmers Market. To successfully run a grassroots organisation depends on its members and its supporters and Ruth shows her support to PL by sitting on the board for PL, she offers her skills on the Time Bank as our very own sewing fairy and she actively uses and supports the Time Bank.

Ruth is also a well-known face amongst the young families in Lyttelton as she often looks after everyone's kids as well as being a wonderful mother to her own children. All of this whilst managing a very stressful personal period being out of their family home that I know many of us can sympathise with and I would like to wish her well for a smoother remainder of the year.

PS Ruth is also the wonderful Sewing Fairy based at the Garage Sale on the first Saturday of the month. Due to finally moving home she won't be available as the Sewing Fairy on Saturday May 7th.

Invitation to 'Simulacrum'

Firstly a big thank you to the 'League of Super Artists' (Anne Dillon, Donna Chisholm, Gil Cowan, Julie Sheppard and Roseanne Jones) for providing some 'Super' art for our last exhibition which ended on Sunday. The exhibition was well attended with over 600 visitors during the show. We also received some very positive comments about the show including the cleverly executed art with vibrant eye catching colours. As you know 'Bobby' and 'Buddy' stole the show!

Our next exhibition 'Simulacrum' is an exhibition of contemporary portraiture and art featuring the human figure. Some accomplished artists have submitted work to this exhibition. We are pleased to have received works from Lyttelton based artists Meredith Marsone, Stephanie Crisp and Juliet Neill and the well-known Sumner based artist Kees Bruin. The works from Thomas Hancock and Andrew Swarbrick are astounding.

The exhibition runs from 6th May until 26 June. Our opening night party is on the 6 May and as usual it will be a fun filled evening with champagne cocktails and snacks. We are privileged to welcome Ben Brown, the Lyttelton author and poet who will read some of his work on the opening night. Many of the exhibiting artists will be at the opening night party.

Please accept this newsletter as a personal invitation from Tim & Madhu for you to join us on the opening night from 5 to 7pm on May 6th. We hope you are able to come and say hello to us and the artists and look forward to meeting you.

If you are unable to come that day don't forget we are open till 7pm every Friday and serve wine from 5pm for you to have a look at these amazing works in a relaxed environment.

Please 'like' our facebook page as we post regular updates and artwork. facebook.com/oxfordstreetartlyttelton

Lift Library News

Hello LIFT Library members

Ever since LIFT Library began, in December 2011, the books have been arranged on the shelves in alphabetical order of title. As so many books seemed to overlap in their topics, I kept putting off re-arranging them to make it easier for members to look for things on particular topics. But I've now spent the holiday taking them all off the shelves, organising them into topics, reshuffling to get logical groupings on the shelves, and now have them back on display, for you to come and look at.

These are the broad topics, but some books are difficult to place. Starting on the top shelf –

- Environment – which includes climate change
- Money – which includes alternatives, like Timebanking
- New Zealand – NZ authors, on various subjects
- Economics – which is a wide-ranging topic
- Community Resilience – localisation, transition, NGO management
- Gardening and Food – hard to separate, as so many books deal with both
- Indigenous – various countries
- Healing – mind and body
- Children's – including picture books
- Oversized books which don't fit on the shelves

And because the shelves are really crammed, I have removed a few books, which will be either returned to their contributors or put in a box at the next Saturday market, for anyone to help themselves. Or you can get in first by coming here to have a look! (Address below – but do contact me first to be sure I'll be home.)

LIFT'S Library Film 7.15 p.m. Friday May 6TH

"PEOPLE GET READY: THE FIGHT AGAINST A JOBLESS ECONOMY AND A CITIZENLESS DEMOCRACY"

New Zealand is suffering from an increasing gap between the rich and the poor, the employed and the unemployed, the power-holders and the powerless. This discussion is based on a new book, which comes from the USA, but the issues are international. I strongly recommend this film.

Lyttelton Primary - Open Day

Lyttelton Primary is having a special open day for the wider community to take a look at the new school in Oxford St. Sunday May 8th 2.30-4pm.

Community Patrol

Lyttelton and Diamond Harbour Community Patrol teams are very short on volunteers. Pat Owen advises that training is given and there is a lovely new berry 4-wheel to drive! Only requirements are a clean driving licence and police check and a good attitude to caring for the community. Please contact Pat Owen on 328 8182 if you are interested in volunteering or have any issues that Community Patrol could help with.

From the Manager's - Desk Naval Point Club

Thank you to all those volunteers who made the Starling National Championship Regatta such a success. It was awesome to be part of such a good team who delivered a fantastic and enjoyable regatta for the competitors, their families and supporters. Big thanks to Ross May Regatta Co-ordinator for making it all work well together on the water. National Race Officer Phil Folter and his team for delivering an awesome series on the water in sometimes trying conditions. Finally, Wayne Keen and his onshore team for ensuring everyone was launched and retrieved safely and was treated to surprising snacks as weary sailors came off the water after three races each day.

The club has received nothing but praise for its organisation of this regatta, readily achieving a 12 races series, almost unheard of in recent years in the Starling Class. It shows that the club is strong in its ability to host and run such events successfully and correctly. Thank you all, especially to the following volunteers:

- Phil Folter, Bill Rusk, Debby Taylor, Bob Nicholls on the Committee Boat
- Glenda Anderson, Richard Brown (SCA) Bryce Hawkings and Iain Begg on the finish boat
- Robbie Norris, Hugh Dimock and Jes Vilsbaek on Rescue One
- Tony Taylor and Mike Corboy on Yamaha
- Paul Campbell and Graeme Grant on KT
- Mike and Sue Stenhouse on their own boat
- Peter and Penny Low (Waitaha Paddling Club) on Aquapro
- David Weith and Bob Gordon on Mickey Finn

- Mike Alison and Don le Page on Fi glass - Judge's Boat
- Milton Bloomfield and Alisdair Daines on Milton's own Judge's boat
- Donald McKellar and Graeme Wall for Judge's support.
- Wayne Keen, Pauline Keen, Finn McLachlan, Ali Nightingale and Sam Keen for all their assistance ashore with organising snacks and food for the Competitors and volunteers.
- Thanks to Jenny and Rosie for keeping the coffee going.
- Phil Jackson for his efforts in learning Sail Wave and ensuring the results were correct and on time in the various file formats.
- Jon "Oldsie" Olds for all his tremendous help with the fleet to get through official measurement and keep the fleet going throughout the regatta.
- Gregor Bowater, chief measurer for organising and driving the measurement process on Sunday and his team, including Debby Taylor, Iain Begg, Phil Jackson, Brian Lamb and Marina Martin.

Celebrating.....

The Lyttelton Information Centre Team

Thanks to the generosity of the Tindall Foundation via Project Lyttelton the Information Centre volunteers were recipients of a lovely treat. Our entire team was given a donation so that they could do something nice. This was to thank them for all the extra work they have done supporting Lyttelton community as it recovers from the events of the last couple of years. The team chose to go to the movies. Thank you Tindall Foundation and Project Lyttelton.

Earthquake support

Will continue in city libraries - In the Know Community Hosts

Although in the Know Hub has closed, support is continuing for people still dealing with claims, repairs and rebuilds. In the Know Community hosts will be present at some Christchurch City Libraries from 18 January, 2016. They will also be available at various local community events throughout the summer.

The hosts will listen to homeowners' questions and concerns, help them figure out their next steps, and connect them with the right people to make progress. Homeowners should come and chat with a host if:

- they are unsure of their next steps;
- they are not clear what their options are;
- they don't know who they should talk to;
- they are having trouble making progress.

Community hosts will be available at these Christchurch City Libraries

Mondays	9.00 - 12 noon	Christchurch South and New Brighton Libraries
	1.00pm - 4.00pm	Aranui and Linwood Libraries
Tuesdays	9.00am - 12 noon	Aranui and Shirley Libraries
Wednesdays	1.00pm - 4.00pm	Fendalton Library

LOST:

BLACK GOOSEDOWN SLEEVELESS JACKET. It must have fallen out of the pushchair I was pushing on Thursday 21st April. It was last seen by someone in the grassy area at the bottom of the steps to the rose garden. I am very upset to have lost it as I wear it most days. My daughter bought it back from Canada. The brand is MOUNTAIN DESIGNS CO-OP. I would be very grateful if someone has found it and returns it to me. Thank you. Michelle Parkes. Phone 3288020 or 0274160625. Email michelleparkesnz@gmail.com.

Advertising in the Review

Since the inception of the Lyttelton Review we have been very generous with advertising. Any one off advertisements for businesses have generally been published free. Advertisers are encouraged to make a donation to our volunteer organisation.

To be a permanently listed business in the directory and have articles written about your business we have a yearly membership fee of $165 including GST. If you would like to have a yearly listing please contact us infocentre@lyttelton.net.nz and we will forward our membership application.

Fruit and Vegetable Co-Op Internet Banking

Lyttelton's Fruit and Vegetable Co-Op now offers internet banking. This is a much easier way to pay for your fruit and vegetables. If you are interested please call Wendy at the Information Centre 328 9093.

Plastic Shopping Free Lyttelton

The team is also excited to announce a new initiative between the Lyttelton Harbour Fruit and Vegetable Collective and Plastic Shopping Bag Free Lyttelton. On Wednesday 11 May our $6 pack customers (not our $12 pack ones at this stage) will receive their fruit and vege in a lovingly made cloth bag from Plastic Shopping Bag Free Lyttelton. These customers will be asked to give a 'koha' for 2 red cloth bags, $2 or more if they can afford. The proceeds will go towards the making of more cloth bags for Lyttelton and promote the plastic bag free message. They will then have their own specifically for the fruit and vege delivery each week. Thanks to Juliet Neil, Sue Ellen Sandilands and the passionate team of Plastic Bag Free Lyttelton.

This is a trial, and we hope to be able to offer this to $12 pack customers if all goes well. I am guessing the bags might be more popular than the fruit and vege! If you are keen to get involved with Plastic Shopping Bag Free Lyttelton they are always looking for new members and anyone happy to attend some bag making sessions. Join their facebook group to be kept informed.

New Health and Safety Laws

New health and safety rules were passed last year and they affect all community groups who have one or more paid staff. The new laws will be of particular interest to managers - many of whom face the risk of personal liability for breaches of health and safety.

This 90 minute, afternoon workshop on 24 May will cover:

- the new rules and how they will affect your group
- a look at the liability issues that could arise for your group and for your manager
- recommendationstohelpyoumeetthenewlaws

Matariki Celebration 2016

"Celebrating our cultural diversity through the sharing of dance and music"

Maori New Year- Matariki Celebration is held every year in June. The star cluster known as Matariki rises in the cold months of winter. Its rising signals the beginning of the Maori New Year, usually between the start of May and the beginning of June.

This event is organised jointly between LCH and local iwi.

We extend a warm invitation to all in the community, cultural music and dance groups within your school and early childhood communities to perform at our Matariki Celebration in Lyttelton on Saturday 18th June 2016 at Albion Square.

If you would like you or your Kapahaka, Dance or Music groups to be included in our family orientated celebrations of entertainment, interactive participation, sharing and fun then please contact Community House: 741 1427

Help to keep warm this winter

Community Energy Action is a charitable trust committed to ensuring all homes in Canterbury are warm, dry, and energy efficient. Some of the ways we do this is by providing insulation, energy advice, curtains and energy efficiency products.

If your house was built before 2000 and insulation was not checked or topped up since, you may need more insulation. CEA can provide a free, no-obligation insulation assessment of your home.

We are a charitable trust so we work for you, not for profit. By installing your insulation with us, you not only keep yourself and your family warmer but you will also help keep your community warmer this winter, as we use proceeds to fund our community projects. Free insulation is available to low income vulnerable households (conditions apply). CEA also provides a free energy advice service over the phone or by email. Curtains are invaluable to keeping your home warm during the winter months. Our Curtain Bank collects donated curtains and alters them to provide good quality, lined curtains to anyone that needs them.

CEA showcases a variety of energy efficiency products and techniques at our display room in Christchurch. Pop in anytime during office hours to look around. For community groups of 6-20 people, free tours of the display room can be arranged outside of office hours.

For more information about any of these services, or to chat to one of our friendly energy advice professionals, call 0800 GET WARM, email us at info@cea.co.nz, or check out our website www.cea.co.nz

Ko te whanga ko au; Ko au ko te whanga - The harbour and I; I and the harbour

After five years of living in Ōtautahi (Christchurch City), I have recently moved back to te Whakaraupō (Lyttelton Harbour). Although I grew up in Northern England, meaning my genealogies lie in a land thousands of miles away, I have developed a deep love for and connection to this place I now call home.

Ko te whanga ko au; Ko au ko te whanga - 'The harbour and I; I and the harbour' is an on going project that I began last year, in my third year of study at Canterbury's School of Fine Arts. In this work I focus specifically on Rāpaki, a small Māori settlement which sits on the shores of te Whakaraupō. Traditionally, Māori believe there to be a deep connection between humans and the natural world, a relationship which I find particularly evident at Rāpaki. Here the local iwi (tribe/people) have always held a strong spiritual and physical tie to the land and the harbour. However in recent years the health of the harbour has declined, altering the way of life at Rāpaki.

This year, in my final year of study I further investigate the status of the harbour and its meaning to those who surround it's shores. I am eager to talk to, and engage with members of the community who would be willing to be part of this next project. Whether that be to discuss factorial histories on the harbour or to share personal stories of time spent in this place. I would love to hear from you.

Coming Full Circle

Lyttelton Focused Again

"I arrived in Lyttelton from the Netherlands in August 1984", said resident Joke de Rijke. Like many of us she felt that special energy from day one. "Lyttelton had a good feel to it so I just stayed based on my intuition". Thirty two years later she's still here and enjoying what our township has to offer. She's reached a period in her life where she's totally focused on being here and so is readjusting her lifestyle to make this happen.

Change isn't new to her. Over the years she's sampled living in various parts of the township, Brenchley, Jacksons, and now Selwyn Road. She's always preferred living on the edges having a deep love for the nature and peace and quiet of the rural edge.

Like her house moves her career has also moved through various cycles. In her early days in the township she was a chef. Work was initially in Christchurch at the Dux Deluxe. Then she heard via the grape vine that Lois Ogilvie from the Volcano and Lava Bar was looking for a relief chef so her life was Lyttelton focused again. A son was born, there was more work in the hospitality industry, and then another change.

Massage had long been of interest to her. She did a course twenty-five years ago which was based on Swedish Massage.

"Swedish massage is based on the Western concepts of anatomy and physiology as opposed to energy work that is more common in Asian-style massage. Both Swedish massage and physical therapy were pioneered by a Swedish physiologist, Per Henrik Ling (1776-1839) at the University of Stockholm".

Over time she's developed her own massage style. Now she combines her massage with acupuncture. The acupuncture skills were developed with further study. This was initially Christchurch focused, but now she's brought it back to Lyttelton as a home-based business. "I'm really trying to get back to basics with my life and surroundings" she said. That means she wants to be in Lyttelton, working, living and enjoying the place she has called home for so long.

To make this all work for her she's also got into the new movement of AirB&B. With such a shortage of accommodation in our area she converted a sleep-out into a self-contained space for travellers. This has been her first summer and she's really pleased with how that has gone.

Feeling re-energised she's also been able to focus on her other great love, the outdoors. She knows our hills well. She's musing with the idea of encouraging others to come on her walks in the hills. Maybe you don't feel confident or would just like to explore more places with an experienced walker. Stay tuned she might just join the Timebank and make that an offer!

Raw Peanut Butter and Cacao Tarts

INGREDIENTS - Makes 12

- 1 1/2 cup cashews
- 6 medjool dates, pitted
- 1/2 cup almonds
- 1 tablespoon coconut oil
- 1/4 cup cacao powder
- 1/4 cup shredded coconut
- 1/3 cup peanut butter
- 1/4 cup agave syrup
- 1/3 cup coconut cream
- 1/4 cup coconut oil, softened
- 1 tablespoon cacao nibs

PREPARATION INSTRUCTIONS

1. Soak the cashews overnight or boil until they soften. If you choose the latter just remember it's no longer raw!
2. Throw the dates, almonds, first lot of coconut oil, cacao powder and shredded coconut into a blender or food processor. Combine until well mixed.
3. Grease some mini tart tins and press the base mixture into each tin.
4. Pop the cashews, peanut butter, agave, coconut cream and coconut oil in the blender and whizz until smooth.
5. Spoon the mixture into the bases and sprinkle with some cacao nibs before allowing to set in the fridge for several hours.

Rebuilding earthquake damaged roads,
water, wastewater and storm water pipes.

26 April 2016

Work update: Randolph Terrace and Reserve Terrace, Lyttelton, storm water and wastewater repairs

What	Storm water segment repair and wastewater pipelining
Where	14 and 20 Randolph Terrace and 30 Reserve Terrace, Lyttelton
When	From Monday 2 May for around one week

Update: The storm water segment repair on Randolph Terrace was unable to be completed in February due to a design change. The new design now involves the installation of an underground storm water chamber, sumps and repairing the broken segment of pipe. During this work the road will be closed outside house number 14, although vehicle access to driveways will generally not be affected.

Following wastewater pipe investigations, pipelining will also begin next week to repair sections of the earthquake damaged network. One repair is outside 20 Randolph Terrace, and the other is outside of 30 Reserve Terrace. Randolph Terrace and Reserve Terrace will never be closed at the same time to always allow residents access in and out of their street.

Where:

Key:

- Storm water road closure
- Wastewater road closures

Monday 2 May: Randolph Terrace will be closed outside house number 14 to begin storm water repairs. No vehicle access to properties will be affected.

Tuesday 3 May: Randolph Terrace will be closed between house number 14 and the entrance to Foster Terrace (Foster Terrace will still be accessible) to continue storm water repairs and wastewater pipelining. If you live within the road closure and need to use your car during the day, please move it outside of the road closure by 8.30am so it doesn't get blocked within the road closure.

Wednesday 4 May: Randolph Terrace will be closed at house number 14 to continue storm water repairs. No driveways on Randolph Terrace will be blocked. Wastewater pipelining work will also take place at 30 Reserve Terrace on Wednesday. Vehicle access to properties 28, 30, 43 and 45 Reserve Terrace will be blocked. If you need to use your car please move it outside of the road closure by 8.30am. Reserve Terrace and Randolph Terrace will never be closed at the same time. Please look out for changes in traffic management.

Thursday 5 May and Friday 6 May: Randolph Terrace will be closed outside house number 14 to complete storm water repairs. No vehicle access to properties will be affected.
