REVIEW CREATORS

Lyttelton Harbour Review is a voluntary led community newsletter initiative developed after the February 2011 earthquake. It's a Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre initiative produced by former Chairperson Wendy Everingham and Committe Member Jenny-Lee Love.

The objective of the Lyttelton Harbour Review is to help keep local residents informed with what is going on in the wider Lyttelton Harbour community. Of course the success of the Lyttelton Harbour Review could not be possible without the ongoing support and enthusiasm from the wider community and funder the Rata Foundation.

A big thank you goes out to everyone who sends information; is willing to be interviewed or lets us know what might be happening in the neighbourhood. The Lyttelton Harbour Review project would not be possible without you all.

If you have an event, topic, sport announcement, fundraiser or cause that you would like to share with the harbour community, then Wendy or Jenny-Lee would love to hear from you:

STEP TOWARDS LYTTELTON'S REGENERATION

One of the barriers to the development of Lyttelton's town centre may soon be removed.

Christchurch City Council is hoping to lift a requirement that local businesses in the port town must provide a certain number of car parking spaces.

Christchurch City Council hopes to address a barrier to development in Lyttelton.

It is seeking feedback from strategic partners Environment Canterbury, Waimakariri and Selwyn District Councils and Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Tahu on a draft proposal, under the Greater Christchurch Regeneration Act, to amend the Christchurch District Plan.

The proposal will also be sent to central government.

The amendment would remove a restriction in the plan around the number of car parking spaces that commercial businesses in the port town must provide in order to operate.

Its removal is seen as urgent as several planned developments are affected and will require resource consent under the current rules.

Council Head of Planning and Strategic Transport David Griffiths says the proposal would remove district plan requirements that are neither appropriate nor practical in Lyttelton.

"The car parking requirements are causing issues for several potential developments," Mr Griffiths says. "It means development plans cannot meet the permitted activity parking requirements.

"Landowners have, at various stages, raised the issue and the related length and cost of resource consent processes as an impediment to development in the centre. The regeneration of Lyttelton has been affected, with developers slow to invest and several sites still vacant."

He says removing the restriction will effectively return the Lyttelton situation to its pre-earthquake state, where most commercial sites did not provide parking.

"Lyttelton is clearly unique because of its topography, specific regeneration needs and the size and dimensions of the sites for development and we see real merit in this restriction being removed."

Councillors have agreed that, following feedback from strategic partners and depending on that feedback, staff should prepare a final proposal to be submitted to Greater Christchurch Regeneration Minister Megan Wood.

SIMON MORTLOCK HONOURED

Simon Mortlock's longstanding service to the Rod Donald Banks Peninsula Trust was honoured with a luncheon to mark his retirement from the Board in July held at the Governors Bay Community Centre. The lunch was well attended by past and present Trustees, partner organisations and contract staff who have been involved with the Trust since its inception.

Garry Moore, the first chair of the Trust, recalled how the idea of an environmental Trust for Banks Peninsula had crystallised during the amalgamation of Banks Peninsula with the City while he was mayor of the City Council. Naming the Trust after Green MP Rod Donald had seemed appropriate after his sudden and untimely death at the time the Trust was being formed. Governors Bay resident Simon Mortlock, well known for providing his legal skills and strategic ability to charitable organisations in the area, had been recruited to assist with founding the Trust. Simon then went on to serve as a Trustee for the maximum term permitted, and had taken over as Chair when Garry Moore stepped down in 2015.

Incoming chair Maureen McCloy, former President of the Canterbury Mountaineering Club and YHA Corporate Services Manager, thanked Simon for championing the partnership model, enabling the effect of the Trust's funds to be multiplied across the Peninsula. His unstinting commitment to the Trust and his wealth of knowledge and wisdom meant major projects were completed on his watch. The party enjoyed watching a film about the Trust and its work to date.

Simon Mortlock spoke of his pride in the organisation. He felt that model of a charitable Trust that was both independent of the Council, but still loosely controlled by it, was a highly cost effective way to achieve public goals. He committed to take a keen interest in the future progress of the Trust and assist in any way that he can. He thanked the Trustees for their many hours of voluntary service and the Trust Manager Suky Thompson for her contribution.

The big surprise of the day was the catering provided by the Governors Bay Jetty Association, another organisation of which Simon is chair. "This partnership recycled the funds for the event back into the community," said Suky Thompson, Trust Manager, thanking Louisa Eades and her team for the beautiful lunch produced, "exactly the sort of thing that Simon has so successfully encouraged us to do."

HAMMOND PAINTS TO OWN RARE BEAT IN CHRISTCHURCH ART GALLERY SHOW

An evocative exhibition featuring rarely or never seen works by leading contemporary artist Bill Hammond will take centre stage at the Christchurch Art Gallery Te Puna o Waiwhetū from August.

Titled Bill Hammond: Playing the Drums, the exhibition alludes to the Christchurch artist's passion for drumming and percussion, and a lifetime love of music.

Hammond's studies at the University of Canterbury's Ilam School of Fine Arts in the 1960s were complemented by his trap set percussion talents as a member of a popular folk group, Band of Hope Jug Band.

More than 40 artworks covering several decades of Hammond's work will be on display at the Christchurch Art Gallery from 3 August to 19 January next year.

The exhibition includes works from the Lyttelton-based artist's private collection.

Christchurch Art Gallery Director Blair Jackson says Playing the Drums provides the perfect opportunity to "celebrate the works of one of New Zealand's great artists".

"Much of Hammond's early work features musical references, including song titles and lyrics," Mr Jackson says. "However, Hammond is most renowned for his striking half-human, half-bird creatures.

"Many of Hammond's later works convey a deep sense of disquiet as the artist explores the fragility of the natural environment.

"The precarious nature of today's world and the vulnerability of all species – including humanity – are very much in focus in Hammond's later works."

Bill Hammond: Playing the Drums brings together a wide selection of Hammond's work – early and late – from some of his smallest works on paper to some of his largest paintings on canvas.

Among the highlights is the opportunity to see The Fall of Icarus, a Christchurch Art Gallery Te Puna o Waiwhetū collection favourite, on the wall for the first time in over a decade.

Another is the inclusion of Bone Yard Open Home, Cave Painting 4, Convocation of Eagles.

Painted in 2008, the work is more than two metres tall and four metres long, with strong connections to Lyttelton, Sumner, Redcliffs and Banks Peninsula. It is the first time that Bone Yard Open Home has been shown in Christchurch and only the third time it has been displayed publicly.

URUMAU – THE PLANTING PHILOSOPHY

The Urumau Planting team aim to return Urumau Reserve to a temperate rain forest. That is what used to be here before human settlement and fires burned much of the vegetation. We want Urumau Reserve to be an exemplar, a place for high quality native regeneration and a space for us all to learn about our bush and local biodiversity.

A forest is not a garden, it's not neat and tidy, at its best it's wild and uncontrolled. The planting we do is primarily to seed a new forest floor. We plant our own eco sourced trees densely so that they grow tall and cover the ground quite quickly. That's our main aim. We let nature do the rest apart from weeding and general maintenance.

The initial growth is very fast and within 5-10 years the forest floor is starting to take shape. You may have noticed this. The grass has gone and leaf litter replaces it. Slowly ferns, mushrooms and other localized life forms start to creep into the lower canopy. Even the worms begin to change. The native ones start to replace the introduced ones. Unfortunately the full effect of an intact forest will not be seen in our life time. It takes several hundred years for the full eco system to return.

To achieve our aims means we are also very particular about what we plant. We have adopted the approach that the remnant bush that still remains in untouched parts of the south-facing parts of the Port Hills contain the plants that are most suited genetically to this area and will prove the most resilient over time to climatic changes. These plants are very difficult to obtain. Apart from the DOC nursery at Motukarara no one else grows these specialized plants. As a result we have taught ourselves how to propagate the seeds from the remnant bush to grow our own supplies.

We go to this trouble for two reasons. There are so few of these plants left. In an era with so much extinction this is our attempt to increase the supply and hopefully preserve the limited source of the plants. Secondly, this is our way to enhance and strengthen local biodiversity.

It is very difficult for us to re-vegetate the entire reserve quickly. It takes a lot of time, energy and planning. It's also the reason why kind and well-meaning offers from the wider community are turned down. Many people want to give us natives from their gardens. We always say no. We don't mean to be ungrateful but those plants could have come from anywhere in the entire country. They don't meet our requirement of the most resilient plant stocks. We are also not keen for people to plant their own corner of the reserve. We are trying to do planting in a systematic way that promotes either a fire break or continuous forest. As for exotics, this reserve is not the place for those. That includes fruit trees.

Over the past five years we have managed to plant around 300-400 plants a year. We have focused behind the houses in Foster Terrace. That was done with the aim of creating a fire break from the houses to the reserve. Native trees are more fire resistant than exotics and a much better option than open grassland where a fire can spread quickly. Currently we have been slowly moving down the pathway towards the Foster Terrace entrance and at the end of this season that should be completed strengthening the bush corridor.

A new three year planting plan needs to be created for future plantings. At this stage we were considering planting down the hill towards Reserve Terrace. This will create a continuous area of bush.

We trust this explains what we do and why. The only way we can do this faster is if more people help and remain connected to the programme. Each planting requires two years of year round maintenance. The tasks involved are propagating the seeds, nurturing the seeds, preparing the site – including removal of non-natives, pest control, weed control, planting, releasing and watering. It's a never ending cycle but most rewarding when you see in front of your eyes nature reclaiming the spaces.

Please get in touch if you have any questions or if you want to help out. – Our next planting day is Sunday August 4th 10-1pm. To participate txt 021 0476144 or email lytteltonreserves@hotmail.co.nz

CELEBRATING OUR VOLUNTEERS LYTTELTON HARBOUR INFORMATION CENTRE

How do you reward a team of hardworking volunteers?

...Take them out for dinner.

It is always a busy summer with visitors to the Harbour passing through our doors and receiving the personal welcome that the volunteers at the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre provide. Winter is quieter and a perfect opportunity to learn more about our harbour and celebrate our year so far.

Dinner at the Fisherman's Wharf restaurant was a great spot for looking out over our domain and eating some lovely fresh food.

Volunteer week had been the month before so our celebrations did not fall in line with that but it is important to us here to recognise and reward the amazing work that volunteers do. Over the year the 3 hour shift a week that most undertake equates to 156 hours of time that benefits our harbour locals and visitors alike.

Training sessions have seen us head out to the beautiful Godley Head and Orton Bradley Park and share art and history at Stoddard Cottage and The Timeball. We also create opportunities to socialise and talk about the things that are happening in the Harbour, of which there is a lot. With new buildings, consultations on Naval Point and Godley House site, cruise ships just to mention a few, there is never a shortage of sharing.

If you have a love of the Harbour and want to share that with others, or even want to meet new people and learn more about the Harbour, maybe a volunteer role at the Information Centre is for you. Call Ruth Targus for more information 03 3289093

Lyttelton Rotary has a new president for the upcoming year. Barry Toomey took over the presidency at the end of June from Brian Reeve who had done a great job leading the club within the harbour basin community. The Lyttelton Rotary club during Brian's year, amongst other projects has taken on maintaining the Baden Norris walkway which is next to the information centre in Oxford St and goes through to Sumner Road. The track was badly damaged in the earthquakes but the club with the assistance from the city council are working on getting it back to a maintained walkway honouring this Lyttelton icon Baden Norris.

Lyttelton Sea Scouts approached the club this year to ask for help to fund a seamanship training course for leaders so in the warmer months the sea scouts can enjoy water activities and sailing on the harbour. With this training it will be a start to enable the leaders to take the scouts safely out on the water. The first duty for our new president Barry Toomey was to present the cheque to the scout group at their weekly meeting to enable two leaders to attend required training which is in August. We look forward to seeing the Lyttelton Sea Scout group out enjoying water activities this coming season as we also look forward to working within the community as the Lyttelton Rotary Club. If you wish to know anything about our club or want to come and join us for one of our fortnightly meetings please contact Barry on 0274799678.

OUR AMAZING GARAGE SALE $46,545 FOR OUR COMMUNITY.

It's that time of the year when Project Lyttelton reflects on the success of its projects. We'd like to focus on the Garage Sale to show what an amazing job the team have done over the year for the community.

The Garage Sale is one of those special projects where its impact is spread far and wide. First and foremost it's a great community connector. Whether you work, volunteer or shop there it's a great way to connect with others and feel part of something.

One of the special volunteers is Jan MacKay. "I have been a casual volunteer at the Garage Sale for several years and I really enjoy helping. The team are great fun to work with – we also have a lot of fun – and I also love meeting our lovely customers".

The connections go beyond individual wellbeing. It's also connecting various community organisations around the harbour. A function of the Garage Sale is to share its resources with the wider community. One way it has achieved this is by enabling community groups to book slots to fundraise. The groups provide the volunteers and they earn the proceeds less a small administrative fee.

"Over the past year there have been 34 bookings from community organisations who have taken advantage of this scheme. That has translated to $8350 of funds being fund raised between those organisations", said Frances Willems. Funds have been used for a variety of purposes. School camps, volunteer expenses, uniforms, travel costs, Christmas presents.

The Garage Sale team also donate goods to good causes. Over the year they gave $1000 of goods mostly to the Primary School, Sea Farers Centre and Kids First Kindy. Class materials, small gifts and clothing were the bulk of the donations.

The Garage Sale is also a great recycling centre. "I sometimes see the same items back 5 or 6 times", said Teresa. For items that don't sell, the team are on the lookout for places that the items can be re-used. That might be a trip to the Eco Centre or Creative Junk. Unfortunately there are some things that just can't be recycled and they end up at land fill. Some of the vital funds raised at the Garage Sale then have to be used for this purpose.

Other obvious benefits of the Garage Sale include the fact that people don't have to travel outside of Lyttelton for clothes, toys, household items and the likes. The quality of the donations is generally high.

The last great benefit of the Garage Sale is the financial contribution it makes to community wellbeing. Over the last year this is how the proceeds have been shared.

Groups outside of Project Lyttelton who have benefited from Garage Sale fundraisers are:

Diamond Harbour Civil Defence	$406
Diamond Harbour School	$180
Diamond Harbour Singers	$1096
Governors Bay Civil Defence	$254
Governors Bay School	$226
Lyttelton Netball	$1057
Lyttelton Pool Passes	$195
Lyttelton Primary School	$893
Lyttelton Scouts	$332
Lyttelton Tennis	$231
Lyttelton Steam Tug	$575
Lyttelton Reserves – Planting Team	$195
Te Puna Auaha – Makers Space	$987
Tree of Hope	$794
Whakaraupo Netball	$928

Within Project Lyttelton the following projects used the garage sale to raise funds for materials and general expenses:

Community Garden	$350
Timebank	$3347
Youth	$110
Total	$3,807

For the year a total of $46,545 was raised from our garage sale. $34,388 went directly to support the running costs of our team. This paid for wages, a new outdoor awning, dump fees and volunteer expenses for the huge team of volunteers.

Thank you to Frances Willems, Teresa Cameron, Valda Smith and their amazing team of volunteers for enabling this magic to happen in our community.

SUMMER WITH YOUR NEIGHBOURS

Summer with your neighbours (formerly known as Neighbourhood Week) is set up to bring people together and now runs for the entire summer. From 8 July 2019 you can apply for funding for your local gathering.

Have you ever wanted to organise a neighbourhood gathering? Do you want to get to know the people who live close to you? Perhaps you've always wanted to put on a potluck for the whole street.

Summer with your neighbours is about bringing people closer together, and celebrating the unique and diverse mix of each neighbourhood. It is a popular event that has grown from year to year and is promoted by the Christchurch City Council. Three years ago we extended the event for the whole summer after feedback from our applicants and it is now known as Summer with your neighbours.

Download your Summer with your neighbours invitations visit <https://ccc.govt.nz/assets/Images/News-Events/Events/2019/Summer-with-your-neighbours-invitation.pdf>. Fill them out and send them around the community for your event.

All are welcome to come along to the Lyttelton Harbour Network meetings, where you can network with others working and living in the area and hear about new projects and events. The next meeting will be on Thursday 8 August at 12pm at the Lyttelton Community Boardroom, 25 Canterbury Street.

CONSULTATION OPENS ON EMISSIONS TARGET

Consultation has opened on the greenhouse gas emissions target that Christchurch should adopt as part of its climate change strategy.

"We want to hear our communities' views on whether we should go with the Government's proposed target and work towards being net zero emissions, excluding biogenic methane, by 2050 or whether we should setting ourselves a more ambitious target," says Christchurch City Council Head of Strategic Policy Emma Davis.

"We know we need to dramatically cut our emissions; the question is how quickly can we do it?"

"We know there are people and businesses in our communities with very strong views on this issue and we really want their feedback on the approach the Council should be taking," Ms Davis says.

Have your say on the emissions target.

SAFELY DISPOSE OF UNWANTED BATTERIES

Wanting to dispose of unwanted batteries safely? Check out the Christchurch City Council's free battery recycling scheme available from 13 May 2019.

Why recycle batteries?

Batteries contain numerous components that are bad for the environment. If put in wheelie bins, batteries can potentially harm staff and members of the public. Batteries deteriorate if not in use and can become hazardous. Collecting batteries before they deteriorate means they can be recycled appropriately, saving valuable components for reuse and reducing the risk to people and the environment.

- Displaying goods

Benefits in being part of our Team

- You'll meet a great bunch of caring, like-minded people
- You'll gain some new skills
- You'll get to know our community better
- You'll know that your contribution enables a wide range of community groups to fundraise to provide a variety of activities in our community
- You'll know that you are contributing to waste minimisation by recycling and reusing people's unwanted items
- We have a team outing/lunch once a year where we get ideas for our shop from other similar stores
- You'll be entitled to a 50% reduction on all goods priced $5 and below whenever you are on duty.

We are looking for a volunteer that could work either in the morning or afternoon on a Wednesday, Thursday or Friday. You can negotiate what works best for you. Ideally if you can commit regularly on a weekly basis that works well as you get familiar with the processes and how the Garage Sale works. But whatever time and help you can offer to The Garage Sale, it is always much appreciated.

Please call Frances on 021 100 1234 if you are interested in joining our team.

STAY WELL

GET A FLU VACCINATION

- The flu vaccination is available from your GP and may be free, or reduced cost, for some people.

GETTING WARM INSIDE AND OUT

- Dress yourself and your children in layers of warm clothing, even when you are at home. Wool or polyester (polar fleece) clothes are best.
- Woollen blankets, a good duvet, and hot water bottle will keep you warm in your bed.
- Eat warm nourishing food – warm soup is a great healthy way to warm up.

KEEP AN EYE OUT FOR EACH OTHER

- Look out for elderly relatives and neighbours by regularly checking on them to ensure they are eating well, keeping warm and taking their medications properly.

3 THINGS TO KEEP YOUR HOME WARM AND DRY

1. VENTILATION / AIRING YOUR HOME

- Open windows in the house for a short time every day – even in winter (as if you have burnt the toast)
- Keep lids on pots when cooking, use your range hood or open a window.
- When using the bathroom, keep the door closed. Use the heater and extractor fan and open the window after showering.
- Hang washing outside - drying a load inside can release up to 3 litres of moisture into the air.
- Take advantage of the sun by opening your curtains during the day, by wiping away any condensation and by closing curtains at sunset to help retain the heat.

2. INSULATION

- Having good home insulation is one of the most important ways to keep your house healthy. Home insulation will help keep you cooler in summer and warm in the winter, reducing the cost of heating your home.

- Get good quality winter curtains. You may be able to access free lined curtains from Community Energy Action Curtain Bank.
- Try to seal gaps around windows and door frames to prevent draughts. Used lined curtains and door snakes to help retain the heat.
- To reduce the amount of heat going out your windows, you could use a DIY window insulation kit.

3. HEAT TO THE RIGHT LEVEL

- The best temperature for health is 18 -21 degrees in the living room while you are at home and 16 degrees overnight in bedrooms.
- Be sure to heat the bedrooms of infants, elderly or unwell people as they are more vulnerable to the cold. Take care not to overheat baby's bedrooms as babies can't regulate their temperature (Use heaters with thermostats or leave the door open to avoid overheating)
- Use an electric heater or heat pump.
- Avoid portable gas heaters inside as they release dangerous pollutants and moisture as the gas burns.

or visit www.cea.co.nz
for further information.

STAY WARM

SPREAD YOUR POWER BILL

- You may be able to spread your power bill payments across the year so that there are no surprises. Talk to your power company.
- Use www.powerswitch.org.nz to make sure you are on the right plan for your home with the cheapest provider.
- If you need help with your power bill contact your power company first. You can also get in touch with Work and Income, or try the Mayor's Welfare fund.

MAKE SURE YOUR HEATING IS SAFE AND EFFECTIVE

- Clean heat pumps – vacuum the filters regularly.
- Use only untreated, dry wood in your log burner, rather than damp wood which burns less efficiently.
- Find out how to use all the levers and slides on your burner to make sure you are using your burner correctly.
- If your log burner has a switch on the wall make sure this is on. This could improve your fire's efficiency, giving you more heat for the amount of wood.
- If your chimney is smoking for more than 15 minutes, then the wood might not be burning efficiently.

For tips and tricks on how to light your fire visit www.warmercheaper.co.nz.
