about the lyttelton review

Lyttelton Review is a community newsletter initiative developed by local Professionals real estate agent Lynnette Baird and Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre chairperson Wendy Everingham. The objective of the Lyttelton Review is to help keep local residents informed with what is going on in Lyttelton and the wider Lyttelton Harbour community. Each week readers can read about community groups; businesses; events; and everything in between. Ultimately we are a collective of vibrant, like minded, unpaid volunteers striving to give an independent, and uncensored voice. If you have an event, topic, cause, or other, that you would like to share with the harbour community, then we would love to hear from you. Be heard, be seen, be informed - read it or offer it here.

Lyttelton Tennis Courts

A Recreation Secret of Lyttelton West

It's great to see life returning to the Lyttelton Tennis Club again. A team of four mum's are behind the resurgence of the club. They are Jillian Frater, Lisa Mason, Kristi Calder and Lucie Ozanne. Their dream is to get loads of adults and children playing tennis again plus clean up the site and restore the old clubrooms for tennis users and the wider community. This team are working wonders for the old club. Jillian tells us how already this summer thirty children are coached every Thursday evening plus a group of four adults are as well. "The great thing about the courts is they are open to the public", said Jillian. Anyone is able to turn up to play tennis at almost any time that they like. This is a very different system to many of the clubs in neighbouring suburbs. It's a real community facility tucked into Lyttelton West. "There's often people using the courts, including quite a few who come through the tunnel to play", she said.

Local funders are also very attracted to what this team is trying to achieve. So far they have raised $5000 from the Project Lyttelton Community Earthquake Fund and an amazing $34,000 from the Vodafone community grants scheme for the restoration of the club rooms. Lyttelton Rotary also sponsored $1,000 for tennis coaching and Lyttelton Lions is looking at ways to help as well. Talking to Jillian the club is also about building up the neighbourhood. If the tennis area looks nice more people will be attracted to the area and more activities will happen. We certainly witnessed that with the restoration of the playground, pool and community garden area in Oxford St.

If tennis is your thing and you'd like to help things move forward the team are currently looking for a project manager for the club rooms renovation. If you'd simply just like a game of tennis please register your interest with Lucie Ozanne 328 9560. Keep an eye out for community BBQ's that also happen at the courts in Cressy Terrace, the odd working bee and maybe in not the too distant future an outdoor movie or two.

Launching F.V.Legacy

16.8m [115tonne] Steel Fishing Trawler

Andrew Stark, Chief Executive of Stark Bros Ltd, Lyttelton, New Zealand, last week confirmed their new 16.8 metre Steel Fishing Trawler - F.V. LEGACY, will be launched on Tuesday 21st February 2012. The vessel has been designed and built by Stark Bros in their Lyttelton Ship Building facility for Ocean Fisheries Ltd, an associated company of some 45 years. They have chosen this name principally in recognition of the Legacy that Frank Stark created - successful Boat Building, Ship Repair, Transport, and Commercial Fishing businesses.

It will be a special day, not only is the FV Legacy the 1st new build since Frank passed away in 2008, but the launching will also coincide with the retirement of John Hall, their boat building foreman who joined the company as an apprentice in 1963, some 49 years ago. Liz Stark will perform the official launching duties, the 1st time she did this was as Franks fiancée, when she launched the FV Bluewater in 1967 which was the 1st commercial fishing boat Stark's built for their then new fishing company Ocean Fisheries. Her role on this very special occasion will therefore reinforce the legacy created, and now being continued and developed by Franks remaining family.

With the ongoing drought of new fishing trawlers in NZ, the FV Legacy is the latest in the line of new fishing vessels from Stark Bros – following the FV Frontier in 2004, the FV Jubilee in 2008, the FV Nessie J in 2009. The FV LEGACY once again represents a multi-million dollar investment in the inshore fishery. The FV Legacy is equipped with a very fuel efficient SCANIA DI12 59M, coupled to a 9:1 gearbox driving a huge 1800mm diameter variable pitch propeller, designed to give significant fuel savings. An onboard salt water ice maker, computer controlled split hydraulic winches with auto scrolling, and will fish the varied conditions and fishing grounds particular to the East Coast South Island of New Zealand, fishing in depths from 10m to about 500m.

The FV LEGACY is also the first fishing trawler in NZ to be fitted with a 160khz WASSP multi-beam sonar system with advanced NAVIGATOR 2D/3D seabed profiling software. This system enables the skipper to see real time 3D images of the seabed, which will enable more efficient and productive fishing. The system was developed by Electronic Navigation Ltd (ENL) of Auckland, a 100% New Zealand owned company, and is becoming a best seller around the world for many sea based applications.

Stark Bros are proud to install this NZ Developed Technology, and look forward to the results, which all going to plan will see Ocean Fisheries fitting these units to their other vessels in the near future.

As with their other fishing boats the Legacy will also run on a B60 blend – that is 60% Bio-diesel with 40% petroleum diesel, locally grown and supplied by BioDiesel New Zealand

Bring Back Volcano Radio

Last week while casually perusing the gorgeous New Zealand made items available at Portico on London Street, Maree showed us this cotton T-Shirt being sold as a fundraising initiative for Lyttelton's very own Volcano Radio. Priced at just $30 each; available in two colourways and in sizes small, medium or large. Every penny goes back to the volunteer team at Volcano Radio. As Maree says "we are all missing the local voice of Volcano Radio", so come on Lyttelton, head down to Portico when you've got a spare moment and support this fantastic fundraising effort. ## Preserving Heritage

Holy Trinity Anglican Church Timber Salvage

The Anglican church has been demolished, but local residents want to preserve some of the original pieces of timber for an eventual rebuild. For this to happen they need a few people to help stack the wood in orderly piles, so that it can be covered and kept dry. At least four people are needed, as most beams will need two people to carry them. If you would like to help you will be asked to gather at the church grounds, corner Canterbury and Winchester Street on Thursday 23 February, 5.00pm. John Cleaver will be on hand to direct operations. Please bring your own gloves. Thank you. For enquiries ring John Cleaver 3288442.

calling all community groups

The Lyttelton Review has been designed to help keep Harbour residents informed. It is a tool to be used for sharing information, and is widely circulated across residents, business and media contacts. If you would like to share your AGM reports, or any other information as required. with the wider community we'd love to hear from you.

your photos are wanted

There are a number of local community based projects under way at the moment that require the use of images of buildings that no longer exist in Lyttelton. If you have a collection of photos, or even one photo, of building such as the Albion, the Canterbury Hotel, the British Hotel, Volcano, Harbourlight, Post Office, Harbour Masters, old Library, Council Chambers or the remarkable stone churches then we would love to hear from you. Images either printed, on disk or memory stick are all useable. Please contact the team at the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre if you can help get these projects off the ground.

Gap Filler Design Competition

Focus on Central Christchurch Site

Gap Filler is pleased to announce a design competition for a gap site in association with the New Zealand/France Friendship Fund. This is an open competition for a designed and built 'gap' inspired by Jacques Tati's film Play Time 1967, for Gap Filler's outdoor screenings of six of Tati's films in March 2012. The emphasis is on creating an urban installation. This site will be used for other related events such as talks, workshops and performances. The NZ/France Friendship Fund has generously provided us with some funding for this project which includes a design fee and materials budget for the winner and the execution of his/her design.

The site for the project to take place is an ex-demolition site in Christchurch central city. Entries open February 14 and close on February 27 at 3pm. The build is to take place in early March and the film screenings in mid to late March. The winner is expected to lead the build/assembling/creation of the site with a team of volunteers. The time frame is short and responsive, like many of our projects.

This is a Gap Filler project, so the time line is short and the end result is temporary in nature. This is a chance to get super creative on an inner-city vacant site!

University of Canterbury Sustainability Office

Beyond GDP – A Genuine Progress Indicator for New Zealand

Most "developed" country governments, put economic growth at the head of their policy objectives. In recent years, evidence from these countries has been mounting that the environmental and social costs of production of goods and services have actually been growing faster than the benefits. This process has been described as increasing "illth" faster than "wealth", thereby making us all poorer, rather than richer. One important reason for this is faulty national accounting via use of the Gross Domestic Product (GDP) measure. Professor Murray Patterson, will describe in a non-technical way the principles of the approach and the main conclusions. These will be of for rebuilding Christchurch for a sustainable future. Entry is free but a gold coin donation would be appreciated.

What: University of Canterbury
Beyond GDP Lecture
When: Monday 12 March, 7.30pm
Where: Lecture Theatre A3, University of Canterbury

Get Fit With Le Race

Promoting Cycling Fitness

Cyclists of all abilities will be getting amongst some of Canterbury's finest scenery during Le Race, New Zealand's answer to the Tour de France, on Saturday 31 March. The annual 100km cycle race between Christchurch and Akaroa is back to its original date after it was held in October last year due to the February earthquake. Christchurch City Council Recreation and Sports Unit Manager John Filsell says this year is all about getting new people to give it a go.

"We're supporting the event with a special offer for Cantabrians. If they get a friend from outside of Christchurch to enter Le Race for the first time, then their entry is free. "This event is a great way for people to get fit in the New Year – particularly for those who have indulged in some comfort eating over the past 18 months! It's also a chance to get back to a sense of normality by taking part in something familiar and unique to Christchurch."

Entry for Le Race is $95 (for individuals) and is open until the end of March. There are also two and three person team entries. Visit www.lerace.co.nz for more information.

Canterbury Cycling Development Trust

On Line Survey for Cycling Enthusiasts

The Canterbury Cycling Development Trust is working alongside, CCC, CERA, Sport Canterbury and BikeNZ in the development of a regional cycling strategy that will help shape the long-term planning that will guide the rebuild of infrastructure for cycling within Canterbury. The cycling community (in all its different guises) has the opportunity to feed into this planning process, which will inform the redevelopment of infrastructure that is critical to the cycling and its many constituent groups.

The survey links below are a critical aspect of the data gathering that must be completed. Your input is important as a user (whatever form that takes). As someone who participates in the sport, pastime or uses cycling as a means of transport, this is your chance to have an input into how the cycling infrastructure of Christchurch could be developed. Please take 10 minutes to complete the survey it will be greatly appreciated.
